

Welcome to the Conversation Cafe

July 29th

If someone told you they would buy you one thing that you really wanted no matter the price, what would it be?

Write your answer in the shared notes.

I would want a Corgi Puppy

How to improve an awkward sentence

1. Find the part that's a problem. Put brackets around it and try to replace it with something more accurate, graceful, or straightforward.
2. If the sentence is long and confusing, break it into two or more shorter sentences.
3. Figure out what the sentence is trying to say. Then start over and say it a different way.

Practice is Key!

A stylized illustration of a laptop with a dark blue frame and base. The screen is white and contains text in a dark blue, sans-serif font. The text is centered and reads: 'In the public chat answer this question', 'Which is better: drinking hot drinks or cold drinks?', and 'Before you leave turn on your mic and say goodbye!'. The laptop is positioned in front of a large, light pink circle that serves as a background element.
